Page Title: My game scores homepage	File Name: index.html
Description of Copy Text (What the text will accomplish on this page?)	The text will explain what the site is about (my review on games that came out this year) and have links to a few games I decide to review.
Links on the Page:	Links to different pages that talk about different games I reviewed.
User Interaction (Navigating only or navigating plus opportunity to contribute?)	Navigate only (to other pages).
Graphical Elements/Images (Description plus file name)	Pictures of the games I review will be there with the name of the game labeled. (persona.png helldivers.png jjk.png squad.png)
Color Specs:	I will use 3 colors to make it look flashy. Most likely black, yellow, and blue.
Font Specs:	Likely a normal arial or times new roman font, with descriptions being smaller, while labels and links are bigger.
After providing the above information, provide a sketch of the page.
